

Mock Aerial Duel Of Navy Jets And B-36s Called Off

By HOWARD DOBSON And JACK RUTLEDGE
Washington, June 1 (AP)—The mock aerial duel in the sky between the navy's B-36 and the navy's best Banshee jet fighters suggested by congress has been turned down by the joint chiefs of staff for security reasons.

Burst Of Summer Strikes Predicted

Fourth Round Postwar Wage Demands Coming

By NORMAN WALKER
Washington, June 1 (AP)—Government officials who keep tab on labor matters said today the nation may be in for a summer burst of strikes.

They pointed to mounting union demands for fourth round postwar wage boosts, increasing employer resistance to added labor costs, and bargaining difficulties over Taft-Hartley law provisions. These authorities list imminent negotiations in the coal, steel, automobile and maritime industries as crucial in determining if there will be labor peace or strike conflict in the months ahead.

But a rash of smaller strikes could break out, too, they said privately. During the war government controls over wages led many smaller unions to expect they could get the "pattern" pay a yard won by the larger unions.

This tendency for the smaller unions to demand, and get, the "pattern" awards has continued to some extent after the war. Most unions got the 18-cent raise the big unions negotiated in 1946. The next year the pattern was about 15 cents, and in 1948 about 12 cents.

Now, the experts say, collective bargaining results depend more and more on an employer's ability to pay, or his own economic situation. So the variation among unions is widening all the time. But this may not sit so well with some unions which see others get more.

Important Speech By Truman June 11 At Little Rock, Ark.

Washington, June 1 (AP)—The White House said today President Truman will make an important speech at Little Rock June 11 during the annual reunion of the 35th Division.

Presidential Press Secretary Charles G. Ross said Mr. Truman will speak in the stadium there at 3:30 p. m. (EST) at the dedication of a war memorial.

Comstock Reported In Grave Condition

Alpena, Mich., June 7 (AP)—Former Gov. William A. Comstock was reported in "grave" condition today at Alpena General Hospital.

The 71-year-old Michigan political leader and Detroit city councilman suffered a stroke at his summer camp near here a week ago.

Quick Justice Lifer Demeerleer Freed At Jackson Prison

New Trial Cuts Sentence
Down To 17 Years

Jackson, Mich., June 1 (AP)—Rene DeMeerleer, Michigan's famed "quick justice" victim, walked about as a free man today for the first time in 17 years.

The 35-year-old former lifer, who won a fight before the U. S. supreme court, yesterday left, Southern Michigan prison after confinement since he was a youth of 18.

In the warden's office the aging parents, Alphonse and Helen DeMeerleer, met their tall, dark-haired son to take him home.

"It was the most pathetic sight I have ever seen," said Warden Julian Frisbie.

When DeMeerleer entered Frisbie's office, his possessions wrapped in two small, paper-covered bundles, his mother burst into tears.

There were few words. The three hugged and kissed.

Wordlessly, DeMeerleer climbed into a car for the ride to Detroit and a promised job in an automobile factory.

Educated Man Now
He was 18 when sentenced to life for murder in the fatal holdup shooting of a Lenawee county gasoline station attendant. He was charged, convicted and sentenced in one day.

A few years ago, DeMeerleer, with the help of prison self-schooling began a legal battle to have his case reopened. The supreme court ruled that his constitutional rights had been violated in the swift proceedings that followed his arrest.

Ordering a new trial, the high court held that the Michigan trial court had discriminated against the young DeMeerleer.

The lower court was found to have failed to provide DeMeerleer with counsel or to advise him of his right to counsel.

In a recent new trial DeMeerleer was found guilty of manslaughter and was sentenced to a much lesser term, which he served.

While DeMeerleer had only a common school education when he entered prison, he left as an educated man.

He was head librarian when he left Marquette branch prison seven years ago. He was sports editor for the Southern Michigan prison paper, the Spectator. He studied law, mathematics, history and a number of trades.

Industrial Output Upturn Predicted By Close Of 1951

Atlantic City, N. J., June 1 (AP)—Charles E. Wilson, president of General Electric company, predicted today the nation's industrial production will be rolling along at a high level again by the end of 1951.

There's nothing permanent about the current decline in output, Wilson said, and it won't be very drastic.

The General Electric president estimated the slackening may continue until about the second quarter of 1950 before it turns upward.

But by the end of 1951, he said, industrial production may again reach the high level of 1948.

Traffic Sets New Record On Holiday

Lansing, June 1 (AP)—Memorial Day weekend traffic on Michigan roads broke all records for the annual holiday, the state highway department said today.

Weekend traffic was 10 per cent above last year and 12 per cent above the pre-war high of 1941.

The department said traffic across the Straits of Mackinac climbed 14.4 per cent over 1948.

Hoodlum Hangouts Combed For Clues In Reuther Attack

Detroit, June 1 (AP)—Seeking clues in the Victor Reuther shooting, authorities today engaged in one of the most sweeping mop-ups of the criminal element in Detroit's history.

Police headquarters reported that virtually every bluecoat and detective in Detroit's 4,000-man law enforcement force was ordered into action.

The sudden order was issued in mid-afternoon yesterday. Last night 130 men were in jail after quick raids on gambling and hoodlum hangouts.

One theory in the investigation is that gambling interests conspired against the lives of both Victor Reuther and his brother Walter.

A gunman shot Victor through a window of his home the night of May 24. Walter was shot similarly the night of April 20 last year.

Revised Veterans' Pension Bill Draws Good House Backing

Washington, June 1 (AP)—The House passed and sent to the Senate today a World War I and II Veterans' pension bill after knocking out an "unable-to-work" provision.

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST
Washington, June 1 (AP)—A new veterans' pension bill came before the House today, with its chances of passage looking bright.

It's an entirely different measure from the one the House tossed aside by a one-vote margin on March 24.

Only two fights were in prospect on the new bill—one to eliminate World War II veterans from the benefits and the other to knock out an unemployability requirement.

Chairman Rankin (D-Miss.) of the Veterans' Affairs committee said he would try by amendment to knock from the bill a committee-approved provision denying pensions to veterans who don't meet an unemployability standard.

The committee originally voted no such standard but reversed itself when the budget bureau said the extra cost of the measure, without the unemployability provision, would be $57,000,000,000 in the next 50 years.

Cost Cut Down
Without that provision, the bill's cost has been estimated at almost $9,000,000,000 during the next 50 years.

It was the high estimated cost of pensions that resulted in defeat of the original veterans' pension measure considered by the House in March. That measure's cost had been estimated at upwards of $100,000,000,000 during the next 50 years.

A group of young World War II veterans who helped defeat the first bill said they would fight to kill Rankin's amendment. If they lost, they said, they would try to defeat the whole bill.

The unemployability provision says veterans who, because of disability, can't do more than half a day's normal work or earn more than half the normal pay for the work they are doing, shall receive the pensions. Others would not be eligible.

The pensions in most cases would be $72 a month at age 65. The bill incorporates into proposed law existing benefits now being paid under veterans' administration regulations. Its sponsors say most beneficiaries now are receiving that amount under VA regulations.

These regulations pay $72 a month to veterans who, at age 65, have a 10 per cent disability rating. They pay $60 a month to veterans under 60 who are considered totally disabled.

Atomic Cocktails
Fail to Save Girl
With Rare Disease

Birmingham, Ala., June 1 (AP)—Two "atomic cocktails" failed to save the life of a 15-year-old high school girl suffering with a rare glandular disease.

The girl, Joyce Lee Hughes, died yesterday in a hospital. She was stricken with Hodgkins disease last November and wasted away from her normal 132 pounds to 85 pounds.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Byron B. Hughes, had been hopeful she might recover after drinking the "atomic cocktails" at the Isotope clinic of the University of Tennessee hospital.

The cocktails included radioactive phosphorus from the atomic ovens at Oak Ridge.

Joyce made her last trip to Knoxville in mid-April. Her condition showed some improvement then, but she took a turn for the worse three weeks ago.

Three Boys Killed On Way To Swim; Four Others Hurt

Kalamazoo, Mich., June 1 (AP)—Three teen-aged boys, headed for swimming after working all day in a celery field, were killed last night in an auto crash.

Their four companions were hospitalized in serious condition.

The dead were Elmer Pierce, 17, the driver, and Richard Westerhouse, 16, both of Kalamazoo, and Robert Salisbury, 19, of Comstock.

Salisbury's brother, Jack, 15, and Pierce's brother, Wayne, 19, were taken to Borgess hospital.

Fred Keiser, 17, and Noah Themins, 17, both of Kalamazoo, were in Bronson hospital.

The boys were bound for Long Lake when their car went out of control, left the road, hit a tree and overturned. It bounded into a second tree which crushed in the top of the sedan.

Pierce and Westerhouse were killed instantly. Salisbury died in Borgess hospital.

Toledo Man Saved
From Smoking Auto
Near Owasco, Mich.

Owasco, Mich., June 1 (AP)—Thomas J. Cumming, 21, Toledo, O., was recovering today after being rescued, unconscious, from his smoke-filled car.

Two passersby, Russell Muzzy and Harold Turk of Corunna, noticed smoke seeping from the car parked at the side of M-71 yesterday.

Finding the driver unconscious, they broke the windows, dragged him out and revived him.

Western Powers Near Showdown With Russia

HEIRESS MURDERED — Mrs. Frances Peppel, above, 30-year-old heiress, was found shot to death (May 30) in driveway of her East Grand Rapids, Mich., home. Inside the house police found the bodies of Richard Sleswerda and his wife, Stella. The body of Mrs. Peppel's estranged husband, Richard R. Peppel, was also found in the driveway with a shotgun nearby. Dr. Paul Blossom, Kent county coroner, said it was a case of murder and suicide. (AP Wirephoto)

Decision Due Soon On Housing Measure

House GOP Will Oppose
$19,000,000,000 Bill

Washington, June 1 (AP)—The House Rules committee refused today to clear President Truman's controversial housing bill for a House vote until it finds out just how much the program will cost.

On motion of Rep. Herter (R-Mass.), the rules group sent a letter to the budget bureau requesting cost figures. Foes of the Senate-approved bill contend it would involve a federal outlay of $16,000,000,000 to $19,000,000,000 in 40 years.

The Rules committee killed similar legislation last year.

Chairman Sabath (D-Ill.), battling for the bill, announced he has set Friday as a new deadline for committee action.

If the rules group does not act Friday, the housing bill can be put directly on the floor for a vote June 27.

But if the committee clears it, administration leaders plan to bring it up next week.

The measure was approved 57 to 13 by the Senate on April 21. It calls for a vast program of slums clearance, low-rent public housing and farm housing aids.

Michigan Now Has Kissing Governor; Air Queen Recovers

Benton Harbor, Mich., June 1 (AP)—When Gov. G. Mennen Williams kisses the gals, they stay kissed.

That was the conclusion newsmen drew today from a few remarks dropped by Ruth Peppel, 18, before she boarded a plane for Detroit to be queen of State Aviation Week Activities June 3-12.

Miss Peppel was crowned Miss Michigan Aviation by Gov. Williams in ceremonies at Detroit last Friday.

"He's awfully nice," she confessed to newsmen at the airport here this morning. "He kissed me after placing the crown on my head. After that I didn't remember much of anything."

Canoeist Drowns

Traverse City, Mich., June 1 (AP)—Apparently exhausted from attempts to right an overturned canoe, John F. Smigowski, 18, of Mancelona, drowned last night in Bass Lake a short distance from shore.

A companion, Ray Stanki, also 18 from Mancelona, managed to swim to safety.

Quick OK Asked On Atlantic Pact

By JACK BELL

Washington, June 1 (AP)—Senator Vannoy (R-Mich.) called today for prompt approval of the Atlantic pact by the foreign relations committee to strengthen Secretary of State Acheson's hand at Paris.

The administration's decision to put off senate debate on the security treaty makes early committee action almost imperative, Vandenberg told newsmen, adding:

A prompt and effective report by the committee approving the treaty should be helpful to Mr. Acheson in the foreign ministers' conference.

The committee is expected to approve the treaty unanimously. But when it will reach the senate floor is not certain.

Senator Lucas of Illinois, put formal debate on the pact behind attempts to repeal the Taft-Hartley act. This move was attributed in some quarters to administration uneasiness over criticism of congress by labor.

Lucas wrote CIO President Philip Murray that the Democratic policy committee had decided to take up the Taft-Hartley repealer before the week is out.

Lucas also promised final action in this session on a bill to lift minimum wages, and added that the administration "has lost none of its determination to try again to obtain action on the civil rights program," always a filibuster-inspiring subject.

Murray had asked Democratic leaders for action on these and housing, social security and school aid bills. "Public resentment," he wrote, "is mounting rapidly against the lack of progress at this session of congress."

Lucas noted, however, that the senate has passed housing, school aid, school health, government reorganization and armed services unification bills. He said it is up to the house to start social security action.

He said that if the senate doesn't finish work on "the most urgent proposals of the president" by July 31, the session will be continued.

Bolivia Mobilizes Men For Mine War

Train Service Halted;
Death Toll Near 50

La Paz, Bolivia, June 1 (AP)—Reports reaching here today said the army was "in control of the situation" in Bolivia's strike-torn tin mine region, scene of bloody rioting for the past four days.

Army reservists from 19 to 50 were ordered mobilized last night as the cabinet met in emergency session to cope with what it calls a "state of civil war."

The government said the mobilization was justified last night as the cabinet met in emergency session to cope with what it calls a "state of civil war."

The government said the mobilization was justified by the gravity of the present situation in which striking tin miners have seized mine offices, including Americans, as hostages and fought bloody battles against troops sent to the area.

Two thousand dynamite-hurling miners yesterday battled 200 troops for control of the Patino-owned Huanuni tin mines. The mining area is in the high Andes, about 200 miles southeast of La Paz.

The government previously had decreed a state of siege, suspending normal civil rights for 90 days under semi-martial law.

Railroads throughout the embattled country meanwhile halted service, threatening a grave food shortage. The nation's 3,000,000 landlocked residents get most of their supplies by rail from Argentina, Peru and Chile.

Unofficial reports said the death list might total 50 as a result of the mine strike called to enforce a demand that the government return 26 men—union leaders and others—deported to Chile Friday.

Two American engineers have been reported killed and the superintendent of the Huanuni mines, Howard Keller, a U. S. citizen, was held captive by the miners.

Officers Of GM To Get Big Cash Bonus and Stock

Detroit, June 1 (AP)—The Detroit Free Press said today General Motors Corp. has asked the Securities and Exchange commission to approve a $20,000,000 bonus for 950 officers and employees.

In a Washington dispatch, the newspaper reported the bonus will be paid partly in stock, with a market value of $55 a share, and partly in five annual cash payments. The bonus is for 1948. In that year General Motors did $4,738,000,000 in gross net income of $440,447,000.

The newspaper gave this account of the bonus plan:

It is made subject to future corporation earnings.

A report to the SEC lists 71,309 shares and $17,043,876 cash in the bonus.

Foreign Ministers Council Trying To Solve Berlin Issue

Big 3 Holds Advantage
In "No" Arguments

Paris, June 1 (AP)—The three western foreign ministers met again today to discuss their diplomatic campaign against Russia in the foreign ministers council.

Advisers were said to be anxious for the ministers to pass on to the second subject on the agenda today — the question of Berlin, its currency and its future.

The three western ministers conferred for about 75 minutes. It was understood that one of the questions discussed was whether the four-power council should go into "restricted" session.

Newsmen Barred
This would mean that the deliberations would be secret and that newsmen would not be briefed at the conclusion of the meetings. There was no indication as to what decision was reached.

At present, newsmen are barred from the palace where the meetings are held. After the conclusion of the sessions, however, press officers from each of the four delegations give resumes.

The issue of Berlin centers around the question of transportation between the city and western Germany. Since Berlin is some 100 miles deep in the Soviet zone, any agreement might eventually also govern traffic between the entire east and west of Germany.

Officials of the western powers entered today's session with a moral advantage. It was their turn yesterday to say "No" to the Russians. They refused the request of Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky to invite a 22-man delegation from the Soviet-sponsored German people's congress to present their case to the foreign ministers council.

No More Blockades
They also recalled that the current sessions were convened at Russia's request and concluded that Moscow must desire some sort of arrangement on trade to preclude any more blockades.

The Russians, it was reported, are eager to obtain some economic agreement to provide their zone with manufactured goods.

Great Farben Trust Broken In Germany

Powers Put Big Chemical
Units Up For Sale

By JAMES DEVLIN
Frankfurt, Germany, June 1 (AP)—American and British authorities have begun steps to break up the sprawling I. G. Farben industrial empire. A major unit of the great chemical trust will be put up for sale soon.

Maj. Gen. George P. Hays, Deputy U. S. military governor, said last night the British, Americans and Germans have agreed upon procedure.

The first step was setting up of three units from the American-zone holdings of the vast combine which monopolized Germany's drug and dye industry.

Hays said it has not yet been decided which of these units will be sold first. He declined to estimate the value of the three units.

The general said Farben property in the British zone has not yet been split up for sale purposes, but added that British agreement in disposing of the U. S. zone property was needed.

British and Americans have been working together, he said, in disposing of Farben holdings in their zones.

Hays said Farben stockholders will be invited to sit in on consultations before the sale which will not be arranged for five or six weeks.

Bad Weather Halts U. S. Jet Fighters Going To Germany

London, June 1 (AP)—A German-bound mass flight of 15 United States air force jet fighters is grounded in Greenland by bad weather, an air force spokesman reported today.

The flock of F-80's, war version of the Lockheed Shooting Star, left Bangor, Me., May 26. The planes will stop at Iceland and England en route for Fuerstentum, Germany. They are commanded by Colonel David C. Shilling who led a mass flight of planes across the Atlantic last year.

HOTEL GROUP WILL CONVEENE

Meeting At Blaney Park
June 4 and 5

About one hundred persons are expected to attend the convention of the Michigan Hotel Association at Blaney Park on Saturday and Sunday, June 4 and 5.

The meeting will open with a luncheon at which Sam Wallace, travel editor of the Chicago Tribune, will speak on "The Tourist and Resort Business."

A business session will be held in the afternoon. Robert McLaughlin, deputy director of the Michigan Conservation department, will tell of the department's plans for the development of various resort areas. A symposium on the tourist business will follow, with the following taking part: Robert Furlong, secretary of the Michigan Tourist Council, and Frank Davis, George E. Bishop, J. Lee Barrett and Chester Wells, secretaries of the state's four tourist and resort associations.

A discussion of hotel management problems will be held at the close of the afternoon session.

Major Dennis Glen Cooper of Detroit will show his movie, "Glorious Michigan," at the Saturday evening banquet. Mr. Cooper has been invited to speak before the National Geographic Society in Washington, D. C., next February.

On Sunday morning, Joe Bachunas, operator of the Blaney Park resort, will take the visitors on a tour of the property. A special feature of the Sunday program will be the dedication of a monument to Unkie, the first wild goose brought to Blaney Park. A bronze plaque will be placed at Tee lake, where Dr. Christopherson maintains his wildlife sanctuary. The only other monument ever erected to honor a bird was that dedicated at Salt Lake City in memory of the gulls which saved the Mormons from the grasshopper plague some years ago.

Parochial School

Bus Bill Approved

Lansing, Mich. (AP)—Governor Williams has signed into law a bill allowing school districts to furnish transportation to parochial school children between districts. The governor said he could "see nothing in this law which endangers the principle of separation of church and state."

Opponents had contended that the bill was a "wedge" toward obtaining state support for parochial schools.

Williams pointed out that school districts already are permitted "to transport children from parochial schools within their boundaries along with those attending public schools." He said the measure "does not in any way affect the nature of school instruction."

Foreign Affairs Ministers Faced By Berlin Issue

from western Germany, thus easing conditions in the Soviet zone. The Russian zone was hurt by the Allied counter-blockade.

The western powers were reported ready to propose the establishment of specialized four-power committees to regulate commerce, currency, communications and transit between Berlin and the western zones—a pattern for extension between all east and west Germany.

Germans would be designated from west Germany and from the east German people's congress regime to carry out the plans. They would form an economic council for the whole of Germany.

Western officials are convinced that such an arrangement is the most that can be hoped for in the current sessions.

Unity Hopes Fade

Hopes for some agreement on political unity faded yesterday and the day before when Vishinsky rejected the West's project for extending the Bonn constitution to all Germany.

Instead, he urged the extension of the East German People's Congress, hand-picked Communist outfit, as the legal ruling organ for all zones of Germany. The western ministers refused even to hear a declaration from this regime, holding that it was not representative of Germany or even the Soviet zone.

In considering Berlin, the ministers will have to examine the peculiar situation resulting from the co-existence of two rival city governments—one hand-picked by German Communists for the eastern sector and the other elected by Germany's foremost political parties for the western sectors.

They also have to consider the difficult situation created by the existence of two currency systems in the city—the East and West marks.

ties will be represented at a meeting of the U. P. Air Transportation committee in the House of Ludington tomorrow.

The committee will meet at 11 a. m., and a general meeting and luncheon will follow. Robert G. Murphy, of Menominee, is chairman of the U. P. committee.

John Weesner, president of Nationwide, and Francis M. Higgins, of Milwaukee, president of Wisconsin Central, will address the general meeting.

In Washington yesterday, it was reported, Higgins appeared before a senate interstate and foreign commerce committee and suggested a speedup in air mail pay where temporary rates are fixed for a feeder line.

At present the temporary rate is withheld until a permanent mail rate is established. It is understood that a speedup of air mail pay would make it possible for Wisconsin Central to take up its air mail and passenger service franchise in the Upper Peninsula, serving Escanaba, Iron Mountain, Menominee, Houghton and eventually other U. P. communities.

Veteran Given Up For Dead Finds He Has Two Families

New York, June 1 (AP)—Anthony Martino, given up for dead in action in France in 1944, said today he had no desire to see his legal wife, Mrs. Mary Martino, 37, of Waterbury, Conn.

In Waterbury, Mrs. Martino, who learned that her husband has a wartime mate and one child in Staten Island, announced that she would seek a legal separation from her long-missing husband.

Martino appeared at the Army recruiting station, where he called a few weeks ago to get his army records straight. He said he didn't know how he got home from Europe. He was identified through fingerprints as the man carried on army lists of dead.

For four years he has been driving a taxicab in Staten Island and said he could remember nothing of his past. He has been living with Dorothy Anna Martino, 33, and a son, Richard, 3.

Sales Tax Revenue Spurs In Michigan For Month Of May

Lansing, June 1 (AP)—A sudden spurt of sales tax collections in May brightened the state's outlook for the current fiscal year today.

State Revenue Commissioner Louis M. Nims said collections in May on April retail business climbed 10.8 per cent or $1,705,000 to $17,485,000.

"One million of that increase," Nims said, "probably is due to delayed collections from the secretary of state's office which belonged to the previous month, but we still have a $700,000 business tax gain."

For the 11 months of the fiscal year to date, Nims said that collections are $10,094,000 or six per cent above the same period in the previous year.

"If we keep up at that rate for another month," the commissioner estimated, "we will come out with $194,500,000 compared with our budget estimates of $195,000,000 for the year."

Carpenters Strike In Washington, D. C.

Washington, June 1 (AP)—A strike of 5,000 AFL carpenters today threatened a tieup of virtually all commercial construction in the nation's capital.

By week's end the absence of carpenters will force the layoff of about 15,000 other AFL building mechanics and laborers, according to industry leaders. Work on projects costing an estimated $75,000,000 would halt.

FERRY STEWARD DEAD

St. Ignace, Mich., June 1 (AP)—Vern C. Snyder, 31, a cabin steward aboard the state ferry Munsing was found dead of a heart attack in his bunk today. He had been employed by the Straits of Mackinac ferry service since 1943.

If the ex-GI can supply one, of what happened to him in France. Martino, 40, said he took it for granted that he was discharged when he found himself in Brooklyn in December 1944 and could not remember anything about prior events.

Recognition Pushed For Reds In China

France and Britain Want Trade With Communists

By SEYMOUR TOPPING
Nanking, June 1 (AP)—Diplomatic sources said today most countries — including Britain, France, Russia and India — favor recognition of the Chinese Communists when their new national government is set up.

American officials here, these sources said, are urging that recognition be used for bargaining with the Communists for better treatment of non-Soviet interests. The United States has less immediate need for formal relations than Britain, France and India.

This is the picture outlined by Nanking diplomatic quarters: The western powers are in contact on recognition of the Red Chinese regime and probably will work together. But France and Britain are likely to act sooner if the U. S. delays too long after the Reds establish an eligible government.

France's prime concern is Indochina.

Chinese Red armies soon will reach the Indochina border. The French need a Chinese government to protest to if either troops or war material begin crossing this border to aid Communist-led Viet-Nam Nationalists. The Viet-Nam have been fighting the French since World War II ended.

Britain is eager to do business with the Chinese Communists. The British crown colony of Hong Kong depends upon trade with the Chinese mainland. Hong

Nicholas F. Kaiser Retiring From Tech

Houghton, Mich.—Nicholas F. Kaiser, for nearly a quarter of a century treasurer and business manager of the Michigan College of Mining and Technology, will retire from active service with the college on June 1, it was announced recently by Mr. Kaiser and Dr. Grover C. Dillman, president of the college and secretary of the Board of Control.

Mr. Kaiser accepted the appointment as treasurer and business manager of Michigan Tech on January 1 of 1927. Prior to that time he had been clerk of Houghton county and city clerk of Calumet, formerly Red Jacket. Before he began his career of public service in 1901, he was associated with the Tamarack Cooperative organization as an accountant and with the Sault Lumber Company of Sault Ste. Marie.

Mr. Kaiser is a native of Calumet and a graduate of Calumet high school. During the early 1900's he starred on Copper Country baseball teams, at that time known throughout the United States and Canada as being among the finest organized baseball clubs in the country.

Kong shipping already is calling on North China ports. British businessmen are well ahead in the scramble for trade.

Services Charges To Be Increased

SERVICE charges for water and gas customers in Escanaba have been increased 20c and 15c per month, respectively, for the fiscal year starting July 1, by action of the city council. Consumption rates are otherwise unchanged, except for a slight increase affecting commercial customers.

The amount of the increases in the service charges are nominal and presumably will be accepted by the public without violent protest. Nevertheless, the service charge principle ruffles many customers who feel that this is one phase of the water, gas and electric charges for which they receive nothing in return. Perhaps this is because the charge was called a meter charge for many years. It is probable that the so-called service charge originated as an assessment to pay for the cost of the meters and for their maintenance.

The city utilities officials explain that the service charge represents the customer's share of the cost of maintaining utility services, without regard to amount of usage. Just how the 70c rate for water, 65c rate for gas and 50c rate for electricity are individually justified is somewhat difficult to comprehend.

Actually these service charges are a basic factor in the rate schedules. They represent a portion of the total revenues that are estimated in an annual requirement to operate the utilities. That is the only logical explanation for the differences in the three service charges. In the case of water and gas, it was determined that more revenues were needed than were presently obtainable from established rates. It was decided then to put the increase on the service charges and leave the rates undisturbed.

Whether this was good psychology or not is subject to argument. Those who dislike the service charge principle will feel that they are now to be charged more for something they are not getting then they were before.

Never Stand Up In A Rowboat

THE fishermen who insist upon standing in their rowboats to repair a motor, to cast a line or merely to scan the horizon and count the number of boats within their vision are still numerous, despite all of the words of warning that have been said and written about this dangerous practice.

Standing in a rowboat is an extremely hazardous and foolhardy occurrence. A sudden swell or a shift in weight will toss the fisherman out of the boat, perhaps even overturning the boat and dumping others into the water as well.

On any of the popular fishing waters in this neighborhood, you can find at least one fisherman standing in any group of a dozen or more boats whenever you bother to scan the situation. Mostly the foolhardy individuals are those unfamiliar with the intricacies of a rowboat or the treachery of the rolling surf. Occasionally, however, you will find some veteran fisherman pulling this stunt and you will probably wonder how he managed to stay alive as long as he has.

A fisherman who has not learned the first rule of water safety—never stand in a rowboat—doesn't deserve the pleasures of bay fishing.

One Auto License Plate Again In '50

THE Michigan legislature has once again declined to provide funds to permit two license plates for Michigan cars and as a result motorists will get only a single auto plate in 1950.

The single plate system has been opposed by virtually every law enforcement official in Michigan. The single plate materially reduces the opportunity for identification of cars in operation. It makes law violations easier.

The only excuse for the single plate system is that it reduces the cost of issuing plates. Economy in state government is an extremely desirable objective, but in this instance the savings are outweighed by the obstacles that are created in law enforcement.

Outdoor Writers Annual Meet

THE annual convention of the Outdoor Writers Association of America will be held at North Bay, Ontario, beginning Sunday, June 5, and extending through Saturday, June 11, with headquarters at the Empire Hotel.

The president of OWAA is J. Hammond Brown, conservation editor of the Baltimore News-Post, and the organization occupies a leading position among the agencies working for real conservation in the United States and Canada.

Convention registration fee will be $10, which pays for banquet tickets, a fishing and hunting license for each one registering, and the usual expenses of setting up a convention.

Entertainment includes a special bus and train excursion to Temiskaming, Quebec. Guests will be escorted through the Canadian International Paper Co's mill, where they will see the processes involved in transferring wood pulp into rayon silk, and will be tendered a luncheon by local interests. Other features will be a black bear hunt, bears being plentiful in the vicinity of North Bay, a boat trip on Lake Pippising, a bus trip through the Temagami Forest Reserve, a steamer ride on the Temagami Lakes, and a motorboat regatta.

The visit of scores of outdoor writers to North Bay this month will result in much valuable publicity for the Ontario travel and resort interests. These writers will certainly write series of articles for their newspapers and magazines back home. This is the kind of convention that every resort community would like to have.

Lewis Seeks Return To AFL

JOHN L. LEWIS wants to bring his 600,000 United Mine Workers back into the A. F. of L. corral again. The A. F. of L. can be forgiven if it is growing a bit tired of opening the gates to let him in and out.

If he got back, this would be Lewis' third stay inside the fence. The granite-faced mine chieftain last took his men out of the Federation in December, 1947. That was after he had lost a convention fight in San Francisco to persuade the A. F. of L. to boycott the Taft-Hartley Law.

On that occasion Lewis acted with contemptuous curtness. To William Green, the aging Federation president, he addressed a message that read simply: "Green—We disaffiliate—Lewis."

Whatever he thought of that treatment, Green recognizes Lewis is a vital ally in labor's current fight for repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act. Two weeks ago they conferred on repeal strategy. It was at that time, Green says, that Lewis bid for a return to the fold.

One published report has it that Lewis' terms are those he made at San Francisco, namely, that the A. F. of L. boycott Taft-Hartley. This is hard to believe, for Lewis must know that the Federation plans no change of policy despite its hatred for the 1947 labor statute.

Other accounts suggest Lewis is eager to come back on any terms at all. One top A. F. of L. leader says the miners' boss is thinking of his July 1 contract showdown with coal operators. With the full resources of the A. F. of L. behind him, his bargaining position would be stronger than now. Other Federation officials believe Lewis is experiencing another surge of ambition to become A. F. of L. president when the 75-year-old Green retires. Lewis frequently has denied that ambition. But the reports gained strength when he recently hired a public relations firm to "popularize" him. That agency declared that behind his stony facade beats a warm heart, the heart of a man who loves children.

Members of the A. F. of L.'s executive council seem unconvinced. They indicate their strong opposition to Lewis' return, and especially to any post of high authority.

From one year to the next, some sort of Geiger counter would be handy in locating Lewis in the labor movement. In 1936 he led the newly formed C. I. O. industrial unions out of the parent Federation. Six years later he detached his miners from the C. I. O., having previously resigned as C. I. O. president in accord with a pledge to do so if Wendell Willkie were beaten for president in 1940.

In 1946, Lewis rejoined the A. F. of L. and was made a vice president and member of the executive council. This was the status quo until late 1947, when the Federation incurred his displeasure.

No doubt the Federation would like those 600,000 miners back. But its leader must win at the thought of putting up again with Lewis' unpredictable behavior, which often resembles a cold war against almost everybody.

'CIVILIZE' THE MOTORCYCLIST (Milwaukee Journal)

It seems to us that the police deserve a hand for anything they can do to "civilize" the show-off element among motorcyclists. There are all too many of them, with or without girl friends perched on the rear seat, zooming in and out of traffic, giving careful drivers the jitters and creating a needless hazard of the road.

Take My Word For It

Frank Colby

AGAIN THE WORD "SNIT"

Not long ago, George Sessions Perry, writing in the Saturday Evening Post, used the word "snit" thus: "Nature threw herself into a terrifying snit. That was the San Francisco earthquake of 1906."

I wrote to author Perry, and he replied from Rockdale, Texas: "The word 'snit' so far as I know, is just a part of the American patois, and is roughly synonymous with 'tizzy' or 'tantrum.'"

Later, I asked my readers to help find the origin of "snit." From various parts of the country come reports that:

"Snit is a portion of an apple cut in an orange section, strung, and hung to dry. Snit is a portion of a dried apple.

"Snit, in provincial English, means 'blow, sharp, cold,' said of the wind; also, 'to blow, or snuff.'"

The Oxford English dictionary defines snit as "the glowing part of a candle when blown out. Obsolete."

In Norway snit means, "oblique, or slantwise." They say, "He wears his hat on snit." The Norwegian snit also means cut, as the cut of a suit or garment."

A woman reader writes, "When I was a baby, my grandmother would say, 'You are a little snit.'"

Campaign Funds Create Problem

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

Washington.—When a man stops being a successful lawyer in private practice or a successful businessman and takes a responsible government position, can he finally and effectively sever his previous connections? Can he reach disinterested decisions when his former concerns are immediately involved in government business?

These are the questions, it seems to me, behind the proposal to induct large new contracts for B-36 bombers to the Consolidated Vultee Aircraft Corp. of San Diego. Until he became secretary of defense, Louis Johnson was a director of that company and he has a close association with Floyd Odlum, the financier, who is said to control Consolidated Vultee.

Quite properly, in my opinion, congress should try to get the facts about the performance of the B-36 and the technical findings back of the decision to concentrate on production of that plane. That is a matter of which the public has every right to information.

But it is unfair to prejudice the integrity of the decision because of Johnson's previous associations. Only a complete neutral, who has never had any connections of any sort, political or business, can escape that kind of bias.

JOHNSON WAS INVESTIGATED

With business and government increasingly entwined, as in the airplane industry, this becomes one of the most difficult and troubling relationships. Behind closed doors when Johnson's name was before the senate armed services committee, it was thrashed out with Johnson present.

Members of the committee had asked to have put in the record a letter from Johnson's Charleston, W. Va.-New York-Washington law firm stating that his connection with the firm was severed. There was some dissatisfaction with the letter, which in the essential passage read as follows:

"As previously agreed, you will not participate in the firm or in its earnings in any way during the period of your government service. It was further agreed that, knowingly, this firm will neither be counsel for nor directly or indirectly represent any party or interest having business with the national defense establishment."

This did not satisfy Sen. Harry Byrd of Virginia. The discussion in closed session went as follows:

Sen. Byrd: Mr. Johnson's name remains as head man on the form, on the stationery, and that carries with it a great prestige and influence. He holds this vitally important position, and furthermore, he just said that he owns a share of the assets of the firm, and will continue to own them. I don't think we can say he is completely out of the firm.

Chairman Tydings: Not a share of its assets.

Sen. Byrd: Why not liquidate and we will forget about it?

Mr. Johnson: You are going to make me take a lot more financial losses.

Sen. Byrd: If you are in the firm, you cannot be out of it.

Pressing his point, the conscientious Byrd referred to the Consolidated Vultee contracts for "two or three hundred million dollars" that had been approved. Johnson replied that this was not through "any knowledge or assistance of mine." Then Byrd made this significant statement:

COLLECTED CAMPAIGN FUNDS

"They did get two or three hundred million dollars in contracts from the government recently, and I think there ought to be a clear division and understanding such as we thought we had over the telephone when we voted favorably on your nomination, because our chairman discussed the matter, and the language was 'had no dealings with the government'; we mentioned that time and time again and I don't think that should be restricted. That was a gentleman's agreement we had and we agreed that your nomination should be reported by the chairman, provided these letters were satisfactory, which they have proven not to be, to certain members of the committee, in the language they contain now."

Johnson should welcome a thorough investigation just as David Lillenthal has assured congress that he looks forward to putting on the record the whole story of the progress made by the atomic energy commission. Unhappily in Johnson's case there is the complication of his role last fall as collector of Democratic contributions.

Some of the contributions came from the business men whose firms are now getting large contracts. The only remedy here, it seems to me, is to end the whole system of contributions-in-anticipation-of-favors. Let congress appropriate sufficient funds every four years to defray the cost of all campaign expenses. That would be a lot less costly to the taxpayer in the long run.

In army slang it is said that snit means "a tempest in the teapot," implying a big reaction from a small stimulus.

Many readers in and around Milwaukee have written to say that a snit is a small beer. One reader quotes from George Ade's book, "The Oldtime Saloon." On page 93 snit is described thus: "A diplomatic bar-keep (who didn't drink on the job). . . if strongly urged by some belligerent, might compromise by taking a 'snit' of beer. The snit was a private glass, kept on the work-table under the bar. It was about the size of an eye-up, and the supposed drink was all foam. The dispenser could take a hundred 'snits' without knowing that he had received a message."

"It is obvious that these various snits derived from the German word Schnitt, 'cut,' cutting a slice; a halfglass; a small glass of beer."

It is interesting to note that none of the foregoing definitions are exactly what Mr. Perry had in mind in writing of the San Francisco snit.

'How Do Yuh Get Untattooed?'

Good Evening

By Clint Dunathan

AT MANTANZAS—The sailing Ed Ericksons of Escanaba, of whom we last heard from in Havana, are now at Miami, Fla., after a holiday in Cuba. That holiday was sometimes exciting, sometimes frightening—but always interesting. The Ericksons (in the event you've forgotten) sailed from Escanaba last October on their 40-foot ketch "America" and spent last winter in southern waters. They will soon head north along the Atlantic coast to Maine for the summer, then return to Escanaba via the Erie canal and the Great Lakes.

From Havana the Ericksons sailed 75 miles east along the coast of Cuba to Mantanzas. Theirs was the first sail boat that ever moored there and crowds of curious gathered. The sea was rough on the trip and Belle, one of the Erickson girls who had joined them for the holiday in Cuba, became very seasick.

SHOPPING AND DINNER—"Mantanzas is really a beautiful place, with the houses built up along the sides of the valleys from three rivers that empty into the bay. A nephew of Mr. Botet, manager of the Yacht Club in Havana, took us about the city, through streets like the alleys in our cities. Auto horns were being blown constantly."

"Few of the trades people spoke English and my good wife had some difficulty in shopping for food until a Mr. Artola, who spoke perfect English, came to her rescue. Later he met our whole crew and took us sightseeing. It was also through his kindness, Ed continues, that "miles of red tape were cut so Belle could leave ship and take a plane from Havana to return to Miami."

The Ericksons were invited to the home of Mr. Searra, a ship chandler, where they dined in company with a doctor and his wife and the captain of a Chilean freighter—who entertained the dinner guests with stories about his 32 wives in as many ports of the world!

BRANDY AND TROUBLE—While the Ericksons were at dinner, trouble was brewing at the boat, where young Pat Frazier, a U. S. Navy veteran who has sailed to Cuba with them as a crew member, was watching ship.

"A judge we had met brought me a quart of 150 proof brandy and left it with Pat at the boat. This gesture of friendship almost got us into serious trouble."

"Pat and a Cuban chap drank the quart, swiped a quart of rum I had expected to take home, and were gone when we got back to the ship. About 2.30 o'clock in the morning there was a terrible noise and commotion on the river bank. Then Pat leaped aboard, almost out of his head. He had been in several fights, the last one right at the boat. He was in a vicious mood. I finally got him to sleep and then spent the rest of the night in cockpit—wondering what would happen next. Fortunately, nothing did."

THE HIGH SEAS—It was well that Belle of the uneasy stomach had returned to Miami by plane. For the "America" hit heavy going after leaving Mantanzas Wednesday morning, hoping to reach Miami by Friday.

"We learned the 'America' can take it," Ed reports. "Scarcely had Cuba dropped below the horizon when we were sailing with decks at a steep angle and the cabin windows under water with just the jib and mizzen up. At intervals during the night rain squalls would beat down the whitecaps."

The following morning Ed went below to get a little sleep, leaving his wife, Betty, at the wheel. "A shriek from my wife brought me on deck on the double. The top port mizzen shroud had let go and come down on her. We doused the mizzen at once and have to under stay sail while I reefed the main sail. With reefed main and jib she rode out the next squall very comfortably. I again hit the sack, coming out from time to time to bring the ship about on the other tack."

PAT IS DOUBTFUL—The skipper tried to get some sleep, but found that Pat was causing trouble by insisting they were off course, that the lights of a passing ship was the Nassau light, and that they should get in behind the Hawks Channel reefs. Ed took over and, held to a course outside the reef lights toward Miami.

An approaching freighter bore down on them in the late night and Ed called Betty up to shine the searchlight on the "America's" sails. With a sudden change of course the freighter headed right for them. Ed opened the throttle wide and jibed sails. The freighter missed them by about 15 feet. Shaken by one of the narrowest escapes from disaster since the trip started last fall, Mr. and Mrs. Erickson did not tell the other members of the crew (who were asleep below) until morning.

GOOD OLD U. S. A.—They entered Miami harbor at daybreak. Total cost of clearing for Cuba and back had been $11. They found Belle had been the guest in Miami of Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Conover, former Escanaba residents. Pat left the ship. Belle returned to Chicago. Now the "America" is temporarily at rest while being painted and put in trim again before going on. "It's nice to get back in the good old U. S. A.," Ed reports.

INTO THE PAST

Ten Years Ago

Bark River—C. R. LaHay has been elected president of the newly organized Delta County association of School Board Members. It has been announced by C. P. Titus, school commissioner. Bernard Hamilton of Perkins was elected secretary, and Irving Matthews of Ford River was elected treasurer. Trustees elected were Mrs. Anna Harrod of Cornell and Oscar Larson of Wells.

Manistique—Two names were placed on the roster of the Manistique city council last night. They are Clifford Jackson and Arthur Hough, appointed to fill the unexpired terms of Harry Abrahamson and Frank Dahms, who submitted their resignations.

Twenty Years Ago

Escanaba—A. J. Schwalbach, Gordon Bray, Raymond Ford and Clayton Schram will receive their degrees from Marquette university on June 12. Ford will receive his doctor of jurisprudence degree; Schram, bachelor of law; Schwalbach, a bachelor of science degree, and Bray a bachelor of science degree in business administration.

Gladstone—James Krueger was elected president of the Gladstone Forensics league and Wilson Schwahn was named secretary treasurer at the annual banquet held May 30 at Ford River.

You Never Can Tell

Dear Editor:

More than a half dozen government witnesses in the trial of 11 leading Communists have testified that they were undercover agents of the FBI in the Communist Party. One of them, a young bank employee, said he had attended a party meeting the very night before his testimony. I wouldn't be surprised if one of the defendants himself took the stand and announced that he, too, was working for J. Edgar Hoover.

Confused.

Paris Third Largest

Dear Editor:

As I am a regular subscriber, I think I am entitled to some information.

Of the Communist invasion of Shanghai, China, the Press states that this city is the fourth largest city in the world with a population of 6,000,000. Now we know that New York and London are the first and second largest cities in the world but what I would like to know is what city is the third largest.

Your answer to this question would be appreciated.

Andrew Johnson, Rock, Route 1

Editor's Note: The World Almanac lists Greater London, 8,700,000 as the largest city in the world, with New York second, 7,454,995. The New York census figure, however, is of 1940 and New York now claims to be the largest city in the world. The World Almanac indicates Greater Paris, France is the third largest city in the world, 6,657,859. The population of Paris proper, however, is only 2,735,374. Shanghai's population is estimated by the World Almanac as 6,000,000. Other populous cities are: Moscow, 4,137,018; Berlin, 4,332,242; Tokyo 3,276,000; Osaka, Japan, 2,092,498; Buenos Aires, 3,150,000; Chicago 3,396,808; Calcutta, 2,298,000. The obvious reference in the AP dispatch was to Paris, France as the third largest city.

So They Say

We need American aid. Let there be no mistake about that. Nor are we ashamed of accepting it. Without it we should have had to impose such severe cuts, both in the rehabilitation and modernization of our industry and in personal consumption, that the whole economic and social structure in Europe would have been in grave danger.—Sir Hartley Shawcross, attorney general of England.

I think sometimes that it might be better if we made it more difficult for people to get married.—Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, urging uniform national divorce laws.

The greatest enemy of communism is peace and prosperity. We, in America, have the capacity to bring both to the world. We must provide the leadership.—Former Postmaster-General James A. Farley.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON

Washington.—One of the most important and amazing aspects of the congressional furor over B-36's probably won't be touched on by the house armed services committee. It is the manner in which ingratiating, likable Floyd Odlum, son of a Michigan preacher who became the barefoot boy of Wall Street, has become a gentleman of back-stage importance in the Truman administration.

Also important is the manner in which Mr. Odlum has sucked various big corporations under his control, sometimes by buying up directors.

Yet Floyd Odlum was called to the White House not long ago and offered the job of chairman of the national security resources board, the vitally important job for which the senate recently turned down ex-Governor Mon Wallgren of Washington. It has also been reported that Odlum is now being considered as secretary of commerce.

Just how Mr. Odlum worked his way into White House graces is not definitely known—but his campaign contributions may be one clue to the mystery.

Furthermore, Odlum's friends have a habit of reaching into the government and pulling wires to get his men appointed to key positions. For instance, Curtis Calder, head of the giant Electric Bond and Share (long dominated by Odlum), has now been offered the post of secretary of the army—which controls the government's big power dams. These big dams, of course, vitally affect Electric Bond and Share.

Again, Odlum forces have been maneuvering behind the scenes to have Richard Patterson, now ambassador to Guatemala, transferred to be ambassador to Argentina. Reason: Patterson is a director of one of Odlum's subholding corporations. Odlum's Electric Bond and Share invested $37,000,000 in Argentine utility companies. Therefore Odlum wants someone in the American embassy in Buenos Aires to cope with President Peron, who has already taken them over.

SECRET ARGENTINE DEAL

Incidentally, the Electric Bond and Share investments in Argentina were made by Odlum without the knowledge of its stockholders, who now are irate and indignant. And it's significant that in 1928 Curtis Calder wrote his chief accountant a confidential letter instructing him to enter the $37,000,000 advanced to Odlum to buy Argentine utilities in such a way that it would be camouflaged on the company's books.

This is the man—Curtis Calder—whom President Truman and Floyd Odlum now want to make secretary of the army. Incidentally, Calder's letter is in the official files of the securities and exchange commission and can be secured by the armed services committee in 15 minutes.

WALL STREET "COMMISSIONS" Also in SEC files is other significant data regarding the powerful gentleman who pulls wires backstage in the Truman administration. Those files show how Odlum paid $100,000 to Ed Hutton and $59,646.55 to David G. Baird in 1931 to get them to turn the Chatham Phenix Allied corporation over to Odlum's Atlas corporation.

Hutton was a director of Chatham Phenix, and the $100,000 he received from Odlum amounted to a so-called "commission" to use his influence against the stockholders he was supposed to represent.

In the end, Odlum's Atlas Corp. got Chatham Phenix Allied Corp. for only $8,367,300, which money was actually advanced to Odlum by the Chatham Phenix bank, and when the deal was all finished in 1933 the stockholders, as usual, came out on the hairy end of the lollypop. They got $15.31 for stock which had cost them $27.

Not even Jay Gould or the elder J. P. Morgan in their lushest days ever pulled a deal like that.

USE OF SEINES IS PROTESTED

Pike Caught In Sport Fishing Areas

Commercial fishermen of the Garden peninsula are deeply concerned over the invasion of the walleye pike waters of that area by Wisconsin seine fishing outfits. They fear that sport fishermen will blame them for the large seines, which are being used by the Wisconsin commercial fishermen in the shallow waters where the hook and line anglers are now enjoying their popular pastime.

The Michigan law does not prohibit the use of the seines for the commercial fishing of walleyes, however. According to Nestor Seaman, Garden peninsula fisherman, the general fishing bill, vetoed recently by Gov. G. Mennen Williams, contained a provision to ban this type of seine fishing.

"We have not used the seines for walleyes in the shallow waters because we wanted to get along in harmony with the sport fishermen," Seaman explained.

The seines are similar to those used for netting carp and suckers in the Green Bay, Pensaukee and Suamico areas in Wisconsin and herring in the western portion of Lake Superior. The nets are about five feet high and 1,000 to 1,500 long.

A seine is extended between two boats some distance offshore and then is drawn toward the beach. Catches of from 1,000 to 1,500 pounds of walleyes and other fish have been reported.

Delta county commercial fishermen may join with resort and sportsmen's groups in a movement to secure legislation banning use of seines for catching the walleye or gory in sport fishing areas.

Hundreds of sport fishermen were attracted to Escanaba last weekend. Cottages and boat liveries were taxed beyond capacity. At Ford River, it was reported that some visiting fishermen slept on the floors of unfinished cottages.

S.S. North American Coming Here June 24

The S. S. North American will stop at Escanaba from 10 to 11:30 a. m. Friday, June 24, on a chartered cruise, the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce announced today.

The Georgian Bay Line steamship will be carrying agents of the North American Accident Insurance company.

Battelle Institute Director Will Give Tech College Talk

Houghton—Clyde E. Williams, director of Battelle Memorial Institute of Columbus, Ohio, will be the speaker at the Commencement exercises of the Michigan College of Mining and Technology on June 6. Williams will receive from the college the honorary degree of Doctor of Engineering.

Michigan Tech will graduate the largest class in the institution's history. A total of 529 degrees will be granted, 507 of them bachelor of science, nineteen masters' degrees, one professional degree, and two Doctor of Engineering degrees.

The second honorary doctorate will be conferred upon Louis Buchman, general manager of the Utah Division of the Kennecott Copper Corporation. Buchman is a graduate of the college in the class of 1907.

Escanabans Leave Tomorrow For UCT Meeting in Flint

At least 10 Escanabans are leaving tomorrow morning for Flint to attend the state convention of the United Commercial Travelers, at which the annual election of officers will be held.

L. R. Peterson, grand page; Vagn Gydesen, Escanaba senior councillor; Hilmer E. Johnson, secretary-treasurer of the local group; Mel Oslund, John Lasnoski and Russell Owens, past officers, will attend. Mrs. Peterson, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Oslund, Mrs. Lasnoski and Mrs. Owens will also attend.

The convention opens Friday and will be completed Saturday. The Escanaba organization is composed of approximately 275 members.

A. E. Robbins of Columbia, Ohio, grand councillor, will address the convention. Among social activities planned are a Rathskeller party Friday night, a grand ball Saturday night, and several banquets and luncheons.

Food Places Asked To Oust Dogs, Cats

For the protection of public health operators of food establishments today were asked by the Delta-Menominee Health department to keep their dogs and cats out of such places. Dog and cat owners in general were requested to cooperate.

Said Dr. William C. Harrison, Delta-Menominee Health district director:

"Dogs or cats should not be allowed in grocery stores, bakeries, restaurants or other establishments where they may come in contact with food or food containers."

"Dogs or cats allowed in rooms where food or drink is prepared or stored subject such products to contamination. Unrestrained cats will walk over foods or lie on surfaces where foods may be placed, and thus introduce contamination. Dogs must be excluded mainly for aesthetic reasons but also because they, too, mechanically subject food and food containers to contamination."

HEALTH ISSUE IS DISCUSSED

Heffner Talks At Two Meetings Here

Government sponsored health plans have failed miserably in every country where they have been tried and the Ewing compulsory health insurance plan would also fail in this country, Harry Heffner, Detroit, field secretary for the Michigan State Medical Society, declared in talks at meetings held by the Kiwanis club and Escanaba Junior Chamber of Commerce here Tuesday.

Heffner said the United States was the healthiest and strongest nation in the world, and that it shouldn't scrap a tried and proven system of free enterprise for one which would be a failure.

The speaker discussed claims which Oscar Ewing, Federal Security administrator and author of the plan, has made in his book. Ewing wrote the book in September of 1948.

Death Rate Slashed
Ewing quoted the 1945 government report as showing that 170,000 communicable disease deaths occurred in one year, and said the number should be about 120,000 less.

"By the time the book was off the press," Heffner said, "the number of deaths from communicable diseases already had declined to 137,000—proving that physicians can do the job that politicians promise. And, furthermore, why did Ewing use the 1945 statistics, when the 1947 report was available at the time he wrote the book?"

Ewing wants to prevent 40,000 accidental deaths each year, Heffner said, and if he knows how he should "let the people in on his plan immediately."

"Ewing says we ought to have more physicians," Heffner said. "In the last five years, the population has increased 12 per cent;

the number of physicians has increased by 17 per cent. Life expectancy in this country has increased to 67 years.

More Hospitals Needed
The FSA chief said the U. S. needs more hospitals, and Heffner pointed out that 327 hospitals already have been built in 42 states in one year. The Veterans Administration hospital in Iron Mountain "probably won't be staffed for three or five more years, if at all," Heffner said.

Heffner praised the Blue Cross health insurance plan. "Thirty-three million people hold policies in Blue Cross, a non-profit organization," Heffner said. "Blue Cross is a tried and proven plan, and it costs one-half of the estimated cost of compulsory health insurance."

The "red tape" of reports would heavily burden a doctor, and wipe out the confidential relationship between physician and patient, the speaker said. Considerable injury would result from gossiping of reports on illnesses, he said.

"The compulsory health insurance plan has been a failure in every country where it has been tried," he said, "and it would add about 14 million dollars to the national budget."

"Figures show that proposed payroll taxes which would be necessary to support a program of socialization would be tremendous," said Heffner. The speaker pointed out that one and a half per cent of the annual returns of employee and employer would go toward support of the plan, and that the government would provide the remainder.

"However," said Heffner, "the words 'government treasury' are, after all, merely words. The money would come, as usual, from you and me, directly or indirectly."

Federal employees would be increased by nearly 1,000,000, if this plan were adopted in the United States, Heffner concluded.

FEWER DEATHS, NEW PROBLEMS

Casket Makers Report Business Slump

By ROBERT C. RUARK

New York—There is no way to duck the issue, people are living longer. A government survey, according to the Wall St. Journal, shows that the national death rate is down 2 per cent over last year, and the figure threatens to jump as fresh advances are made in medical science.

This, ordinarily, would be a cheery item, except that it is kicking the stuffing out of economy in the casket-making business. According to the Journal, production has declined among the casket builders, chiefly because funeral directors overbought last year and are, in consequence, over-inventoried.

Should Have Subsidy
This is obviously a challenge to the government, which has in past endeavored to plug all the chinks in the leaky dike of demand. Why should a casket manufacturer be the forgotten man in a managed economy?

Is the fellow who builds your final couch less deserving than the farmers, the shipowners, the airlines, the myriad recipients of government financial aid for maladjusted business?

No comfort here for the fellow who predicated his investment on the stark fact that every man shares a common destination. Death is now in process of becoming less certain than taxes. The casket-builders are speedily entering a state where they may see an increasing lapse of time between customers. They must be protected, if our planned economy is to tip equally on the scales.

Remember Henry Wallace?

I recall, from the depression days, that the tremendous brain of Henry Wallace came up with a solution for excessive production of pigs. In those days we killed the little pigs to stabilize pork. We burned grain. We encouraged the farmer not to plant.

It is only my opinion, doubtless unshared by Mr. Truman's council of economic advisers, that such a scheme cannot possibly work as counter-balance to the plight of the mortuary men. Even if the victims are politically opposed to the administration, no Democrat would dare advocate the plowing under of people. Not if he had his eye on the vote.

In my observation of mankind I have also reached the conclusion that you dare not admonish him to cease breeding in order to keep the economists happy. This stubbornness of the taxpayer poses a very real problem for the administration.

No economist, I, there will be no attempt to solve this problem for the paternal government which has underwritten our existence. This one I leave squarely in the lap of Washington. With a baleful postscript.

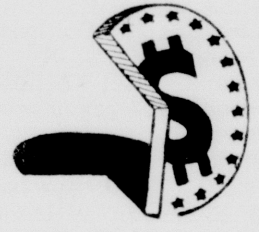

Casket-confectors have votes. They live off a mathematical certainty. Their business is now in process of shrinkage, even as the auto ate into the buggy-whip and harness business. Something must be done.

Shall we grant them a subsidy? Shall we abandon the program to make people healthier, thereby chopping demand in a specialized field? I don't know. This is one for the experts.

FARM PHONE AGENT NAMED

Andreasen Is Appointed By Bell Company

The Michigan Bell Telephone company this week announced the appointment of M. P. "Andy" Andreasen to post of farm telephone manager in charge of the rural development program.

Andy, as he is known to his friends and acquaintances, comes to his new job with appropriate background experience—having been born and reared on his parents' farm near Greenville. He was graduated from the Greenville high school. His mother still lives at the farm.

He takes over supervision of Michigan Bell's far-flung rural activities formerly headed by Theodore H. Dawson, who recently was promoted to commercial superintendent of the company's central division at Saginaw. Dawson was in charge of the rural program for many years and was well known to farmers throughout the state. Andreasen, also, will concentrate exclusively on improving and extending telephone service to farm families.

Andy has been with Michigan Bell nearly 28 years, coming with the company at Detroit in 1921 following his graduation from the University of Michigan. His first work was with the commercial service bureau where he dealt with the individual telephone problems of subscribers.

In 1936 he was transferred to Saginaw as division sales manager. He went back to Detroit the next year to take charge of expanding PBX (private branch exchange) facilities. He was made general sales and servicing supervisor in 1946. Early this year he took over the job of sales and servicing manager for the company's eastern division composed of the Detroit suburban areas.

Andy and Mrs. Andreasen live in Huntington Woods, near Detroit, where they spend a great deal of time in their large vegetable garden. His other hobbies are hunting and fishing. Mrs. Andreasen, like her husband, spent her childhood and youth on a farm. Her brother still operates a farm in Ohio.

During the first World War, Andy was a second lieutenant in the field artillery. During the last war, he was Victory Garden chairman for his community.

The Andreasens have two sons. The oldest, Dick, is a graduate of Michigan State College where he majored in horticulture. He now is doing post graduate work on the same subject at Cornell University. The youngest son, Edward, will be graduated this month from Michigan State.

SMALL TOWNS HIT JACK POT

Escanaba Mentioned In Nation's Business

The industrial promotion program, sponsored jointly by the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce and the City of Escanaba, is mentioned in an interesting article, entitled "The Small Town Hits the Jack Pot," in the June issue of Nation's Business.

The article, written by Richard Seelye Jones, also mentions that Ishpeming, Iron Mountain, Bangor, Cheboygan, Tecumseh and other Michigan towns have been successful in attracting new industries in the postwar period.

"The growth of the whistle stops already has made itself felt in national marketing," the article reads in part. "Towns that formerly asked the drummer about gingham and overalls now have an interest in taffetas and tuxedos. The local hardware merchant has raised his sights from shingle nails to television sets. Store fronts are being modernized and repainted, and windows display electrical refrigerators, furnaces, modern farm implements and sporting goods."

"And the industrialization of the hinterlands has real significance in terms of future technological progress. A great new reservoir of labor is being tapped close to home. Thousands of untrained workers are getting new opportunities to develop mechanical know-how."

"Community leaders and educators in rural areas and smaller cities long have sought to provide increased opportunities for youth. Town after town and village after village had paid the cost of rearing and educating its children, only to see them move away when they reached a productive age. The greater the youngster's capacity for leadership the more likely he was to leave for the closest metropolis."

Industrialization of the small town holds forth the hope that an increasing number of youngsters will find the opportunities they seek in their own back yard.

"And the small towns are enjoying their new growth mightily. With the face of Main Street lifted, the chin of Main Street is up. Many a little city is doing some city planning of its own."

Kathleen Rubick Becomes Bride Of Justin Nelson

St. Francis de Sales Catholic church, its altars decorated with baskets of vari-colored gladioli, was the setting on Saturday morning May 28 for the wedding of Miss Kathleen Rubick, daughter of Frank Rubick, 305 North Cedar street, and Justin R. Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Nelson, 114 North Fifth street.

Rev. Fr. E. H. Berendsen, who was celebrant of the 10 o'clock nuptial high mass, solemnized the double-ring service before a large gathering of relatives and friends of both families. Traditional wedding music was played by the church organist, who also accompanied Mrs. Rose Patrick while she sang "Ave Maria."

Mrs. Geraldine Beaudre, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Misses Betty Jean Nelson, sister of the bridegroom, and Ann Marie Struckel, niece of the bride. Jack Rubick, brother of the bride was best man, and ushers were Lawrence Rubick and Paul Nelson, brothers of the bride and groom.

Preceding the bride, who was accompanied by her father down the white carpeted aisle, was her niece, little Joanne Buruse. She was dressed in a floor length gown of white satin and carried a white basket of rose petals which she strew in the path of the bride.

The bride was lovely in a colonial style gown of white satin, which was fashioned with a tight fitting bodice, net yoke with rounding neckline, long tapered sleeves, and a full hooped skirt ending in a long train. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell in folds from a seeded pearl tiara. She carried a floral piece of white snap-dragons and green ivy.

The bridal attendants wore identical chiffon gowns with matching gloves in pastel shades of green, yellow and orchid, respectively. They carried bouquets of snapdragons in pastel colors and green ivy.

Mrs. Nelson, mother of the bridegroom, was attired in a rose print crepe with white accessories and wore a corsage of pink carnations.

A wedding dinner was served following the ceremony at the home of the bride's father, for members of the immediate families. The color scheme was carried out in the shades of the gowns of the bride and her attendants. A tiered wedding cake topped with the traditional bridal couple centered the table.

A reception for 150 guests was held later from 2 to 8 p. m.

The bride and groom have left on a honeymoon trip to an unnamed destination.

The bride is a graduate of Manistique high school, Class of 1944 and has been employed as telephone operator in the local exchange. The bridegroom graduated with the class of 1945 and is now employed with Inland Lime & Stone company. He is a veteran of the navy in which he spent three years. The couple will make their home in Manistique.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Gust Nelson and Miss Lottie Goodman of Rapid River; Mrs. Herbert Kallman and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Nelson of Gladstone; Mrs. John Strukel and daughters of Duluth, and Misses Helen Swanson and Madeline Olesak of Milwaukee.

NO ACCIDENTS OVER WEEK END

Safety Record Is Set Despite Traffic Rush

Manistique and vicinity had a perfect record over the Memorial Day weekend.

Not a single motor accident—not even a traffic ticket—has been placed by state police, city police or sheriff's officers—a record made all the more remarkable because of the fact that motor traffic was extremely heavy, particularly on late Saturday afternoon and evening and Monday evening and night.

This is one of the best records for this holiday in this vicinity in years.

Dave Balbough, in charge of Palms Book State Park, states that more than 2,000 people visited the Big Spring during the holiday rush. While most of the visitors registering at the park are from Michigan, he states that a large number are from the neighboring states of Illinois and Indiana. There have also been visitors from California, Ohio, New York and New Jersey.

The concessions department at the park was opened for the season last Sunday. Robert E. Sauer of Gwinn, is in charge of this department.

Wm. Laux Lands Big Perch Here On Memorial Day

William Laux, of 110 Chippewa avenue, who has a faculty of catching unusual fish, believes that he has caught the grandfather perch of these parts.

While fishing from the west breakwater in the Manistique harbor Monday afternoon he landed a perch that was 14 inches in length, ten inches in girth and weighed one pound and 14 ounces. And it put up a fight as gamey as any black bass of similar weight.

Two years ago Mr. Laux caught a fish which few people of the many who saw it were unable to identify. The late Conservation Officer Tom Mellon, after some research, finally pronounced it a white bass.

OBITUARY

MRS. AGNES GORSCHKE

Funeral services will be held Thursday morning at 9 o'clock at St. Francis de Sales Catholic church for Mrs. Agnes Gorsche who died Monday at her home at 112 Arbutus avenue. The Rev. B. J. P. Schevers will conduct the services. Burial will be in Lakeview cemetery.

FAYETTE

Fayette, Mich.—Floyd Fagan and Wm. Toles of Detroit returned home Tuesday after spending the weekend with friends and relatives here. The latter visited with his daughter, Mrs. Milton Jacobsen. The former called on Mrs. Mary McPhee of Garden Tuesday.

Mrs. Milton Jacobsen entered the St. Francis hospital Monday night as a medical patient.

Bear At Kerridge Resort Observing Popless Days Now

The two bear at the Kerridge resort, near the Big Spring, are observing "popless days." An offer of this treat for which the average Bruin is extremely fond, only elicits a look from these two that is almost human—like that of little boys who have partaken too freely of green apples.

Sunday and Monday were great days for the pair. Their relish for pop provided great entertainment for the crowds that watched them guzzle bottle after bottle. It also helped add considerable to the resort's days receipts. But suddenly the two refused to take on any more liquid refreshment and the paws which so nimbly held the bottles aloft were put to the more practical purpose of massaging their taut middle regions.

It is not expected that this aversion for pop will last long. Little boys have been known to return to eating green apples after more than one sad experience. And bear are very much like little boys in that respect.

TO WAR DEADPastor Asks All To Work
For World Peace

Today the challenge of leading the world in the pathway of permanent peace faces citizens of the United States, declared the Rev. C. V. S. Engstrom, pastor of the Mission Covenant church, in a Memorial Day address at Fernwood cemetery.

Paying tribute to those who had left a life of comfort and companionship at home to serve their nation unselfishly and in many instances make the supreme sacrifice, the speaker asked his listeners if they were willing to follow the appeal of President Truman that they turn to Almighty God in prayer for help in turning the steps of the world to the paths of permanent peace.

"But the greatest achievement yet is the maintenance of peace, it would be well for all leaders of today to consider the first state document of America written in the cabin of the Mayflower which began: 'In the name of God, Amen! So we begun and so we must continue if we shall maintain peace on earth and good will among men'."

"It is through great men and heroes of the past that we have the liberty we enjoy, but what of tomorrow? then the story will be told what you were today. Arise America and be true to the symbol of America—high moral purpose and moral courage, without falsehood, love of our fellowmen and first of all faith in a living and almighty God which is the cornerstone and foundation of America."

The service at Fernwood followed a short downtown parade. At the Legion burial plot there was a flag raising ceremony with Commander Bill Garrett and Chaplain O'Neil D'Amour in charge as the band played the Star Spangled Banner. Wallace Cameron served as master of ceremonies. Sue D'Amour ably presented the reading "I Am An American" by Liebermann. Several selections were rendered by the high school band.

A salute to the dead was fired by a rifle squad composed of James V. Schram, George Beaudry, Percy Cameron, Earl Lanthier, Bill McCormick, Paul Verhamme, Paddy Sullivan and Morris Thibault in charge of Sylvester Schram.

Memorial rites were conducted by Chaplain O'Neil D'Amour. Taps were sounded by Charles Green Jr., post bugler. Keith Bergman served as drummer. Colors were borne by Mrs. Harvey Groleau, Leone Bastian, Hector Guindon, Marvin Ducheny and guarded by Clifford Mineau and Louis Eroman.

In the escort were H. J. Skogquist, Louis Hillewaert, George Peoples, Morris Lierman, George Mathison, Joe Butch, Ernest DeHooghe and Bill Garrett.

OBITUARY

MRS. FRANK KEGEL

Funeral services for Mrs. Frank Kegel were conducted Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock in All Saints Catholic church with the Rev. Fr. Matt LaViolette offering the mass of requiem. Music of the mass was sung by the student choir.

Serving as pallbearers were Walter Baldwin, Glenn Baldwin, Edwin Strom, Albert Londo, Jack Kegel and Roy Spaulding. Burial was made in the family plot in Fernwood cemetery.

Attending the rites from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Meyer, Mrs. Justine Stecker, Mrs. Alice Menard, Mrs. Agnes Gereau, Mrs. Mike Acker, Mrs. Charles Gafner and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Menard.

PFC. FRED BRASSICK

Remains of Pfc. Fred Brassick, who was killed in Belgium in December 1944 during the Battle of the Bulge, arrived in Gladstone this morning for reburial and was removed to the Skradski funeral home where it will repose until the hour of services.

The rosary will be recited at the funeral home Thursday evening at 8:15 o'clock. A mass of requiem is to be offered Friday morning at 9:30 o'clock in All Saints' Catholic church with Fr. Matt LaViolette as celebrant.

Military honors will be accorded the war hero with August Mattson Post, American Legion, in charge. Legionnaires and servicemen are urged to report at the post hall Friday morning at 8:45 o'clock to attend the rites and pay their respects to a departed comrade.

NAHMA

Miss Jean Redding and Miss Marlene Schaefer left Tuesday for Chicago, where Miss Redding will spend the summer with her mother, and Miss Schaefer will be employed.

Slammin' Sammy Snead Adds PGA To Masters By Tipping Palmer, 3-2

Richmond, Va., June 1 (AP)—Samuel Jackson Snead—at 37—is king of America's professional golfers today.

The slammer from White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., earned that distinction yesterday when he came from behind to defeat Johnny Palmer of Badin, N. C., 3 and 2, for the 1949 championship of the Professional Golfers Association.

Snead's brilliant victory over Palmer distinguished Sam as —

1—The only golfer in history ever to win the Masters tournament and the PGA crowns in one year. After his match with Palmer, Snead immediately served notice he is out to take his third major title this year in the National Open at Chicago next week.

Sammy Snead

2—The nation's leading money winner for 1949. Sam has earned $12,610.83, with $3,500 coming from yesterday's triumph. Lloyd Mangrum of Chicago is second with $11,457.50 and Palmer third with $10,050.83.

All Even At Lunch
3—A pretty fair country putter. Snead's putting had always been the subject of criticism. Folks said if Snead could putt like he can drive, he'd win tournaments. Since he began using a borrowed putter (he won't reveal where he got it), Snead has won three in a row—the Greensboro Open, the Masters and now the PGA.

Snead moved around the 6,677-yard Hermitage Country Club course yesterday in six-under-par to best Palmer. In the morning round, Snead carved a 69 for the par 71 layout. They were all even when Sam and Johnny wound up activities for the lunch-time intermission.

The match was all Snead in the afternoon. They halved the first three holes before Snead pulled ahead on the fourth with a birdie two on the par three twenty-second. The match was never even again.

His Second PGA
Palmer managed to slice Snead's margin to two holes by scoring a birdie four on the twenty-seventh. Snead went three up again with another birdie two on the short thirty-first and there was no longer any doubt about the outcome.

This was Snead's second PGA title. He won the first time in 1942 after being runner-up on two previous occasions. Snead is the oldest player ever to win the PGA.

Palmer played in his first PGA classic a year ago at St. Louis, where he was eliminated in the second round. As runner-up, Palmer banked $1,500.

Snead said after his triumph that there was "nobody I'd rather have played in the PGA finals than Johnny Palmer."

"I wish he had this PGA championship cup," Snead, "that is—a cup just like this one. This was only Johnny's second PGA tourney. I told him before we started out that he had a lot of PGA's ahead and to let Old Sam have this one..." Palmer is only 30 years old.

Eskymos Wind Up Season By Lambasting Hematites

Ishpeming, June 1 (Special)—The Escanaba Eskymos rang the curtain down on their 1949 baseball season with a 19-10 triumph over the Ishpeming Hematites here yesterday afternoon.

It was the Eskymos all the way. They had a 8-7 lead after the fourth and Duane Brown applied the clincher with a base-clearing triple that put the visitors well in front. Rod Sedenquist singled, Buddy Weber and Ray Osen walked, and Brown's bomb did the trick. The rightfielder did the hitting star of the game. In four times at bat, he got a single, double and triple.

Barney Millette also got a triple, and Joe Friedgen came through with a double unassisted when he speared a liner and stepped on the bag for two quick outs at first.

It was a closing victory for Gil Prevost, Eskymo mound standby all season. He hurled until the sixth, and Bob Paterick, sophomore hurler, finished the game.

After a rousing sixth inning, the Eskymos went on a rampage to score six more runs and make it a rout in the finale. The Eskys lambasted three Hematite hurlers.

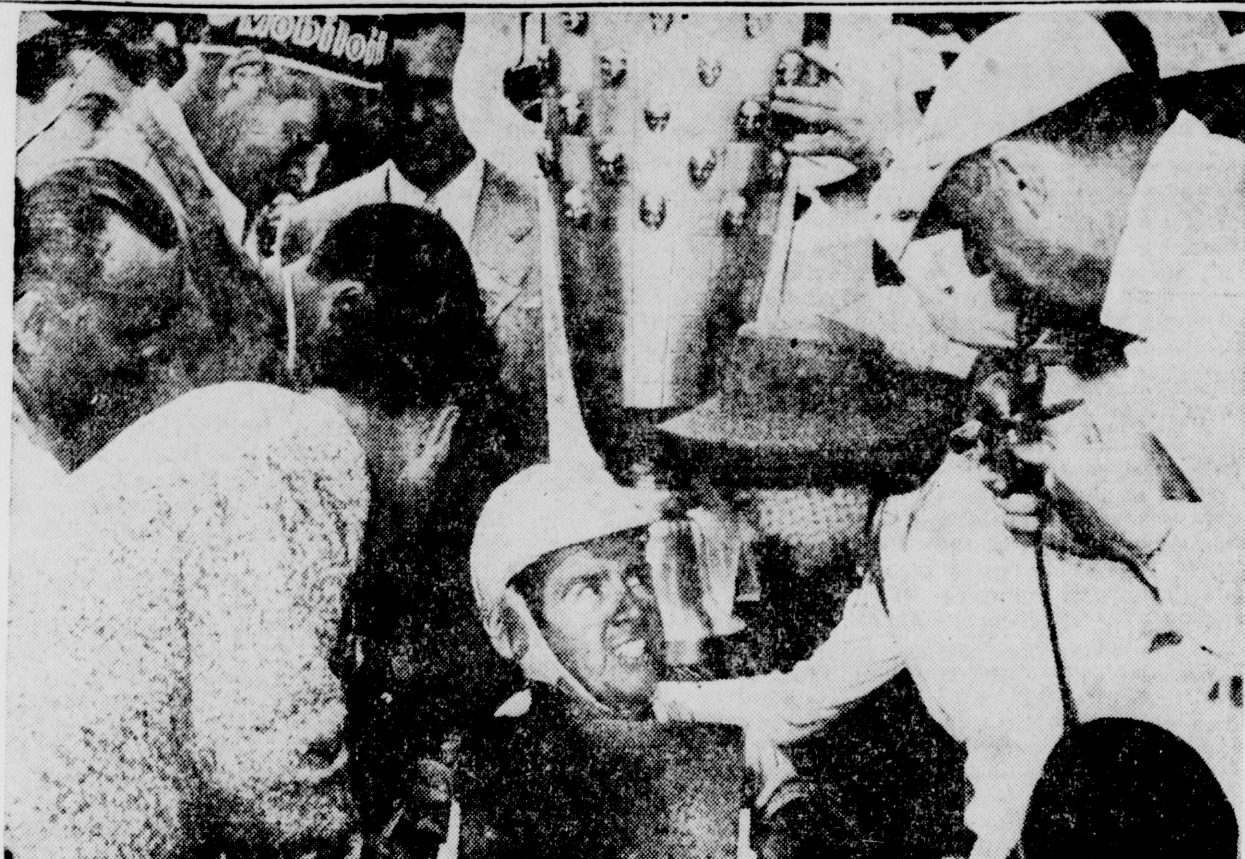

The victory gave Escanaba a 4-3 record for the season.

Furillo Makes Lippy Eat His Words; Bums Win, 6-4

By JACK HAND

(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Carl Furillo, the fellow Leo Durocher said couldn't hit right-handers, is making his old boss eat his words.

The Brooklyn rightfielder hit a 14th-inning home run off right-hander Larry Jansen in the wee small hours this morning to win the "big game" of the young season for the onrushing Dodgers.

Furillo's second homer of the year, both off Jansen, enabled the Dodgers to shade Leo's New York Giants, 6-4, in a 2-hour-57 minute marathon at the Polo Grounds.

As a result of the homer and a spectacular job of no-hit, no-run relief pitching by rookie Jack Banta, the Dodgers enter June in a two-way tie with the Boston Braves for the National League lead. The Giants, who were partners in a triple tie yesterday morning, now are third.

Tough On Jansen

It was a toughie for Jansen who opposed four different Dodger pitchers during the long evening. He blew an early 3-0 lead and another 4-3 advantage. Then in the 14th he dished up the homer to Furillo. A triple by Roy Campanella sent the tiring Giant ace to the showers. Dave Koslo yielded the extra score on Banta's single, his first hit of the season.

Banta's ton drawer bullpen job was his second victory within a week since Manager Barney Shotton shifted him to fireman duty. Only two men reached base against the lean right-hander. One walked and the other was hit by a pitched ball. Both were erased on double plays.

Jackie Robinson, always an important part of every Dodger victory, didn't figure in the headlines of this one although he clicked for three hits. But he made a fine running catch of Johnny Mize's foul fly against the right field wall that helped Robinson always plays deep in a wide shift to right against the long ball-hitting Mize.

As a result of the night's efforts, Robinson boosted his average to .360. He has been going at a terrific clip for the past week. Over that stretch he has hit .563 on 18 hits in 32 at bats, hotter than anybody in the majors.

Jansen was three outs from victory starting the ninth. Gil Hodges opened with a home run. Then they went into their long overtime duel that made it 53 innings for the Giants in the last three days.

The big crowd of 43,922, best of the Polo Grounds night season, knew they were watching a battle for first place. The final of Boston's 7-6 afternoon victory over the Phillies was posted on the scoreboard.

Boston had to come from way back to take that one. Trailing 5-0 going into the fourth inning, the Braves finally pulled it out when reliever Jim Konstanty walked Clint Conaster with the bases full in the ninth.

The Phils hung up a big five in the third, routing Johnny Sain. Doubles by Eddie Miller, Schoolboy Rowe, Ed Waikus and Andy Seminick were the big blows. Seminick added the final score with a homer in the sixth.

Nels Potter, with two shutout relief innings, earned his fourth victory at Rowe's expense.

Escanaba Cubs Hold 1st Workout Tonight

The Escanaba Cubs of last year's Tri-County Junior league which will participate in league competition again this season will hold its first practice session at 6:30 this evening at the city athletic field, Al Ness, manager, announced this morning.

Tiges At Home With Mack's A's

Detroit, June 1 (AP)—The Detroit Tigers return tonight to the business of trying to win baseball games, opening a series with the Philadelphia Athletics.

For the first time since Manager Red Rolfe is going to use Virgil Trucks as his pitcher and the fireballer will be shooting for his seventh victory.

So far Trucks, on the won-lost record, is far and away Detroit's No. 1 twirler.

Trucks has lost only two games and most of his appearances have been such sound performances that he might be on the way now to his very best year with the Tigers.

He'll be working against the A's Joe Coleman who has a record of five wins and four defeats.

In the Philadelphia series the Tigers will be trying to regain some of the respectability which they lost on the late lamented road trip.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

Batting—Carl Furillo, Dodgers—hit homer in 14th inning to give Brooklyn 6-4 edge over New York Giants.

Pitching—Jack Banta, Dodgers—hurled 5½ scoreless and hitless relief innings in Brooks' 14-inning victory.

"It Seems To Me"

BY JIM WARD

George Donnelly, a former Escanaba resident now living in Chicago, is not one to let the misfortune of losing a leg in a railway accident keep him from enjoying his favorite sport.

For many years a member of Escanaba's Highland Golf club before moving to Chicago about 10 years ago, Donnelly was an active and enthusiastic player. He felt the challenge of the most scientific and most exacting of all games and enjoyed its fellowship.

About a year ago, Donnelly lost his right leg in a railway accident in Chicago, but it is unmistakably evident that he has not lost his zest for life.

In fact, in Highland's Twilight league session yesterday afternoon, Donnelly played nine holes with Hazen Hengesh, Art Jensen and Bud Slade and he turned in a commendable 55. And he used only three irons and a putter at that!

"It was the biggest thrill I even got out of golf," Donnelly said.

Mr. and Mrs. Donnelly and their four children are visiting Mrs. Donnelly's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Anthony, 404 Lake Shore drive. They plan to return to Chicago Saturday.

Cuff notes: Someone was kidding Oscar Wassberg, Negaunee prep athletic mentor, about Negaunee's measly 8.5 points in the U. P. Class C track meet here Saturday. "Think nothing of it," Wassberg came back with the stopper. "That's 8.5 more points than we had last year." . . . Incidentally, Negaunee won 7.5 of its points in the pole vault and one point in the shot put.

We should like to pay a tribute to the Escanaba management of the U. P. track finals here for another job well done. Dale Sprankle, Albion college athletic director and honorary referee, said he had never seen a meet as well conducted as this one was. . . . That is high praise. . . . Sprankle has seen a lot of track meets.

There is a bouquet today also for LeRoy Floriano, Hermansville track coach, and Wilmer Savala, Chassell track coach, for the gracious manner in which both the high jump mixup, due to nothing less than a very human error in calculation, when straightened out gave Chassell the championship in Class D-E instead of Hermansville. . . . It was a difficult situation for all concerned, but the coaches came through with flying colors when the mixup was explained.

A public announcement had been made that Hermansville had won. . . . The checkup revealed that Chassell was the narrow victor instead of Hermansville. . . . The coaches actually had to exchange championship and runner-up trophies. . . . Hermansville already had its championship trophy in the car and was about ready to take off. . . . So an orchid to Floriano and Savala for letting the officials solve the problem expeditiously and accurately.

The attitude of both was: "There are the figures and figures don't lie." . . . But it was still plenty tough on Hermansville and a cause for unexpected celebration on the part of Chassell athletes and fans.

SOFTBALL

Tonight's schedule:

Memorial field, 7:15—Escanaba Steam Laundry vs. Hughes-Tomlinson, 8:45—Merchants vs. Nu-Way, Royce park—Northland stores vs. Clairmont has been postponed. Webster—P&H Welders vs. Upper Michigan Power and Light.

The Escanaba Liberty Loans kept their record unblemished last night but not before White Birch had said "Boo!" at them by nursing a 5-4 lead to the last of the seventh with one out.

And then the Loans—some say the lucky Loans—throw in the kitchen sink. Mickey Kuchenberg got on base on an error; Chuck Peltier tripled to tie it up and Ed Gauthier doubled to wrap up the ball game—a 6-5 triumph for the Loans.

It was Louie Kositzke and Bob Anderson for the Loans, and Franny Lanchour hurling and brother Harry catching for the Birch boys. Harry hit a home run in the fourth incidentally that made the Loans very unhappy at the moment. The Loans had nine hits and four errors, the Birches eight hits and two misplays.

Golfer Gets Two Aces In Round, Misses Test

Detroit, June 1 (AP)—Ray Maguire, smooth-stroking Birmingham, Mich., golf pro, wrote a new record into golf books yesterday when he scored two holes in one on an 18-hole round.

The amazing performance of the 35-year-old Maguire came in the Michigan sectional qualifying play for the National Open tournament.

Maguire—despite his two aces—did not qualify for one of Michigan's 11 berths in the open but squeezed in as an alternate.

'Stique Golfers To Have Weekly League

Manistique, June 1 — Efforts are being made to organize a Twilight league at the Indian Lake golf course, Don St. Cyr, golf pro, announced. Plans were given encouragement as a result of the interest taken in the play-offs during the holiday weekend.

Results of weekend play follow: Carl Siddall won low on two and seven with fives. Carl Carlson was high on these holes with a total of 14.

A. F. Hall was low on No. five with three. Vern Dufour was high on No. one with 9. Bud Malloy and Dr. C. F. Anderson were tied for low with 40 each.

Holland Raked 2nd Biggest Prize In Speedway History

Indianapolis, June 1 (AP)—Bill Holland, who shook off the bad breaks of his first two 500-mile speedway auto races to set a new record in winning his third try, raked down the second highest prize money total in speedway history for his victory.

The Reading, Pa., roller rink proprietor won $51,575 for himself and Lou Moore, owner of the Blue Crown Special. Holland drove. Only Billy Arnold ever got more for a speedway victory in 1930. He led all but three laps of the 1930 race and won $52,100.

In addition to the $51,575 he and Moore will share, according to their own arrangement, Holland received the Oldsmobile race car, a television set, a replica of Borg-Warner trophy, the "Ringmaster" ring given by Bardach Brothers, and a year's free meals from a chain of Indiana restaurants.

and People's Bar presented a Derouin-Brunelle battery.
